THE SEVILLE JOURNAL

SEVILLE

Not much going on here this week as every one is busy entertaining the flu, or else just getting over it.

Mrs. Clarence Shumaker and baby and Mrs. Margorie Easton spent Thursday in Rittman, visiting Dr. Alexander and family.

Mr. Frank Dunlap and L. D. Kintner, who have been on the sick list the past week with the flu, are able to be out and around again.

Charles Beck and family of Cleveland spent Sunday at Jacob Beck's.

Mrs. Andrew Gallander entertained her sister, Mrs. Lily Beach and two daughters, Louise and Miriam and Dr. Paul Beach and wife of Cleveland at dinner last Friday evening. Dr. Beach left on Saturday for Camp Meade, Md. where he will enter military training. He has been commissioned first lieutenant in the medical corps.

Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham of Kenmore spent Saturday night with her brother, A. G. Boyd and wife.

Mrs. R. A. Brintnall was called to Medina Monday to help care for Dr. Floyd Nichols, who is very low with the pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt of West Lafayette, spent several days last week with his cousin, Mrs. Mary Faylor.

Bert Cook was a business caller in Cleveland Tuesday.

Mrs. Catherine Saal and daughter, Mary Elizabeth of Akron, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. R. W. Gardiner and Miss Martha Hawley were business callers in Wooster Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker have returned from Camp Sherman, where they have been visiting their son, Verne, who is stationed there.

Harry Long, Allen Taylor, and Sam Masi of Wooster spent Sunday at their respective homes here.

Miss Smith of Tiffin is visiting her sister, Mrs. John O'Donnell.

Mrs. Sarah Morton, who has been on the sick list the past week, is able to be up and around again.

Mrs. Emma Bostwick was in Medina Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Zigler went to Wadsworth Saturday to see his mother, Mrs. Meager, who is sick with a cold.

Miss Theresa Frazier returned to her school in Rittman Monday, after spending a couple of weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frazier. The schools have been closed on account of the epidemic that is going the rounds.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Squire and baby spent from Saturday until Monday in Elyria.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Beach were in Akron last week on business.

Mrs. A. F. Boyd spent a few days this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lihn, at Caanan.

All kinds of paints and varnishes at wholesale prices at Wadsworth Paint Factory. 44tf

Waltz returned home to care for her mother, who was ill. Seeing the need for nurses, she volunteered her services and received her credentials last week and is now on duty at Camp Sherman.

Harry Leeprovost and family of Cuyahoga Falls were callers at M. E. Van Orman's Thursday.

Frank Wolf and family of River Styx were callers at Sherm Snyder's Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank Davis and son, Orlett, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Marie Conyne. Mr. Davis and family expect to leave for Florida soon to spend the winter.

The Liberty Loan drive is a thing of the past and through the hard work of the committee the township went over the top by several thousand. It was a fine showing and almost every family gave to the limit. Certainly the farmers should have a large amount of credit working as they have done all the year, raising big crops with such a small amount of help and even the extra work of a canvass left work undone, that should have been done.

Potato digging is under way and a few have finished. A good crop is reported nearly every place.

No cases of influenza have appeared in the neighborhood. No meetings are held and we all hope to keep well until the epidemic is past.

Mr. and Mrs. Mumma are to have a sale in the near future and spend the winter in Missouri with Dr. Glen Mumma.

Miss Florence Johnson left Sunday for Cleveland, where she entered a course of nursing. We give all honor to our girl soldiers who are giving their lives to help others.

George Miller and family of South Wadsworth spent Sunday at Peter Howell's.

Frank Shook and family of Medina were Sunday visitors at the Star.

Lloyd Wallis and family spent Sunday in Barborton.

The Alexander brothers of this place left for Philadelphia, Pa., Saturday, to work in the ship yards.

Ross Geiger and family of Seville were visitors at the Shook home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rishel and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rishel of Barborton were Sunday visitors at Chas. Long's.

Miss Ruth Johnson will leave for Cleveland the first of November, where she expects to graduate for a nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Williams spent Sunday at their son's home in Wadsworth.

John Shank and Helen Lambright and Eldo Shank and Irene Shank were visitors at the Shank home at this place Sunday.

No flu in the Star up to date and very little sickness of any kind.

Mrs. J. H. McCleary has been sick with influenza at the home of C. L. Dunlavy in Dennison.

Miss Conson of Loudonville spent a week at the home of T. R. Garn.

Mrs. Mary Lynch passed away at her old home on Saturday, at 2:30. The funeral was attended only by near relatives, on account of the influenza, was held at the home at 9 o'clock on Tuesday. The remains were placed in the vault at Spring Grove cemetery.

In the passing of Mrs. Lynch, I think we can say that we have lost our oldest pioneer. She was 102 years old, and has always enjoyed good health. Those who knew her will always remember the kindly smile that greeted them. Mrs. J. B. Carlton, a daughter and her family, and a sister are the nearest surviving relatives.

Mrs. George Shook, who is not well, expects to go to her daughter's at Wellington to spend some time.

Rev. Wells of Akron will speak on temperance Saturday evening, Oct. 26, at the High school auditorium. All voters are urged to be present.

About one hundred attended the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Hammond on Monday of last week.

Mr. C. A. Wilson was called to Little Rock, Ark., by the serious illness of his daughter, Mrs. Catherine Foltz.

One of Mr. Keel's little sons has blood poison, caused by running a nail in his knee.
